

Press Release

Contact: Lisha Dunlap

Phone: (620) 441-5368

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 16, 2006

'A NIGHT AT THE CABARET' TO BENEFIT BURFORD PROJECT

ARKANSAS CITY, KS- Local artist Piper Leigh will present 'A Night At The Cabaret' this Friday, January 20, at 7:00 p.m. in the Brown Center Theatre on the Cowley College campus. In company with singer and guitarist Piper Leigh, the show will also include musicians Tim Durham on the guitar/mandolin, Dan'l Blackwood playing bass, Max Lyall on piano, Jeff Wood on percussion, and Harry Muldrow playing Saxophone. Greenjeans Studios of Wellington, KS, will create a live recording of the show and audience.

In addition to an exciting night of live entertainment, the show will also serve as a benefit for the Burford Community Project in Arkansas City, working towards renovation of the historical Burford Theatre. Information and updates on progress will be presented, and a portion of each ticket sale will be donated to the Burford. The Burford Marketing Committee will be in the lobby with information for community involvement, and will be joined by Brown's Coffee Shop to provide goodies, coffee, fudge, and more for sale.

Doors open at 6:00 p.m., and tickets can be purchased at the door, or at Union State Bank of Arkansas City. Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $10 for students, and $5 for children, with $5 of each ticket donated to the Burford Project. For more information, contact Sarah Bryant at (620) 442-5200, ext. 137.

-End-